THE DRAMA STUDIED

MEMBERS OF TUESDAY AFTERNOON CLUB ENJOY FINE PROGRAM

An unusual program was enjoyed by members of the Dramatic and Literary Section of the Tuesday Afternoon Club which met yesterday afternoon at the home of the curator, Mrs. H. E. Bartlett on South Brand boulevard.

The paper of the day which traced the origin and development of the drama, was given by Mrs. H. S. Duffield, who handled her big subject in a very clever way showing wonderful discrimination in the selection of vital points. She began, naturally, with the Greek drama and brought it down to modern times showing its development by the Latins when Rome was in its glory, then the Medieval drama, its form during the Renaissance, the English and French drama, and the influence of each period and school.

On modern drama she touched very lightly, attempting no comparisons with the art products of the past. The emphasis of her review was placed on the instinct for dramatic expression which has been inherent in the human race from the first rude beginnings among savages who used the pantomime, down to the children of today who still love to play at make-believe.

She spoke of the taking over of the drama by the State in the days when history was young; when actors were dedicated to art and given no compensation save prizes which were of small intrinsic worth but prized by them above jewels. She also referred to the development of stage craft from the time when groves were the stages and there were none of the accessories with which art and money have equipped the modern.

An outstanding feature of the fine dramatization of the story of Ruth and Naomi, presented by Mrs. Harry Greenwalt, was the skill with which she had joined the beautiful narrative with the story of the birth of Jesus in Bethlehem of Judea. Only a thorough Bible student could have done it effectively, or could have embroidered the theme as did Mrs. Greenwalt with the atmosphere of Jewish life and thought in picturesque touches which lent beauty to the scenes.

Bethlehem furnished the connecting link, for it was from Bethlehem of Judea Naomi departed when she went with her husband to the Land of Moab, and it was to Bethlehem she returned in sorrow and poverty with Ruth after the death of her husband and sons.

The wealth of material the story affords was cleverly utilized by Mrs. Greenwalt in her portrayal of the tragedy of Naomi's life and the vicarious happiness she experienced in the love and marriage of Ruth and Boaz. Especially dramatic was the closing scene where Naomi, established with Ruth in the home of her fathers purchased by Boaz, held to her breast Obed, child of Ruth and Boaz, the founder of the house of David. Seated thus she sees in a vision the shepherds watching their flocks by night, she hears the songs of the angels, sees the Star, beholds the Wise Men guided by it to the lowly manger where the Christ to be was cradled.

BERYL PLATT VISITS PARENTS

Beryl Platt, who is on the ship Cincinnati, gave his parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. M. Platt, of 504 Orange street, a happy surprise Monday when he arrived in Glendale on a two days' leave of absence. His boat which had been stationed at the Philippines was called to the Pacific Coast and stopped at San Diego for coal. The local boys were thus afforded an opportunity to visit their homes. It is more than a year since Beryl joined the U. S. Navy, and this has been his first chance to visit his parents. He is a lad of 18 years, walks erect and has the real appearance of a sailor boy.

NEWS HAS NO COLLECTOR

For the past four or five months the Evening News has had no collector regularly employed and has tried out the system of mailing out statements for subscriptions instead. We have found the plan to be very successful. Many people seem glad to be relieved of the inconvenience of having a collector call and prefer the more business-like way of making out a check and mailing it when they are perhaps attending to other bills.

We have been gratified by the response to our new plan and thank our patrons for their promptness.

WEATHER FORECAST—Fair tonight and Thursday. Westerly winds.

ANXIOUS FOR SCRAP

HOMER BULLARD WRITES FROM CAMP MERRITT, N. J., ON HIS WAY TO FRANCE

Letters from Glendale boys who are in the service are always of interest and we are glad to give them space. The friends of Homer Bullard will be interested in the following written to his parents.

"I received the box and cookies and candies yesterday. I opened the package and said 'dive in.' I doubt if it lasted five minutes. It certainly tasted good and that is what the boys all said.

"We left Camp Mills last Thursday, we thought to board a transport but landed at Camp Merritt, N. J., instead. We are only fourteen miles from New York City so you see we did not go far. This is a nice camp here, nearly the same as Camp Lewis, warm blankets, hot water and warm mess halls. We got into the barracks just in time as it snowed all day yesterday and today everything is covered with snow and it is very cold. We do not notice it in the barracks.

"I think we start across some time this week. I hope so for I am anxious to get into the scrap. I have not heard from my officer's application. It is in Washington, D. C., I think. I do not have any hopes of getting in.

"I received seven or eight letters yesterday that had been held up at Camp Lewis.

"We have plenty of clothes, three suits of underwear, 7 pairs of socks, 2 shirts, 3 pairs of shoes, 2 suits of wool (coats and trousers), 2 pairs leggings, 1 overcoat and 1 rain coat.

"I received the draft from the bank all right. I borrowed four bits from one of the fellows so got along all right. Being broke is the usual thing in the army.

"HOMER BULLARD,
"Co. C 148 Machine Gun Battalion
41st Division, Camp Merrit, N. J."

PLEASANT AUTO TRIP

E. L. Osborn, wife and little grandson, of Montrose, Colorado, arrived in Glendale Tuesday and are at present staying with Mrs. Sophia Porter, 821 W. Fifth street. They left Montrose, which is at the western end of the great Gunnison tunnel, 20 days ago, in their machine, and made their way leisurely to Grand Junction, then followed the D. & R. G. track to Price, Utah, then down Salinas canyon and through Beaver City, St. George and Las Vegas, Nevada, and thence along the Salt Lake track to Barstow, then down Cajon pass, through San Bernardino and on to Glendale. The trip was made with little fatigue and only minor mishaps. Mr. Osborn is cashier of the Montrose First National Bank, but spends his winters in California. He owns a 10-acre tract at the northwest corner of Columbus avenue and Broadway, which he has recently cut up into lots. It was formerly part of a 30-acre fruit ranch—oranges, lemons, apricots and peaches. Mr. Osborn also owns a big wheat ranch in the San Joaquin valley, which he expects to visit next week.

NEW CITIZENS FROM ILLINOIS

There arrived in Glendale Tuesday G. D. Allewelt, wife and four daughters, and Daniel Allewalt, father of G. D. They came here from Peoria, Illinois, and have leased Rev. Willisford's home, 231 Orange street. They left Peoria on the 13th, stopped a day in Omaha, leaving there with the thermometer at 17 degrees below, then came via. Cheyenne, Wyoming, to Salt Lake City, and thence over the Salt Lake road to Los Angeles.

G. D. Allewelt has been engaged in farming and stock raising in Peoria county until a year ago, when he moved into the city for recuperation. The family are all charmed with Glendale, its beautiful streets, lovely homes, fine churches, good schools, and its ever blooming flowers. Their auto is on the way and they expect to take many delightful trips on its arrival. We are glad to welcome this worthy family to our city and hope all will be made so pleasant for them that they will decide to become permanent residents.

PRESBYTERIAN CHRISTMAS

Santa Claus will preside at the Sunday School party to be held at the Tropico Presbyterian church Friday evening at 7:30. The children will help him out in stocking his pack by bringing donations of warm clothing, and toys for boys and girls whom he might not otherwise be able to remember.

At the White Christmas entertainment of music and recitations which comes off the following Sunday evening, donations for the Armenians will be received.

TEN KILLED IN AIR RAID

SIXTEEN TO TWENTY GERMAN PLANES ATTACK LONDON LAST NIGHT—ONE ENEMY MACHINE BROUGHT DOWN

(Special Service to Glendale Evening News)

LONDON, December 19.—Ten were killed and 70 injured in the first German raid over London since December 6, which occurred last night, Lord French reported. Sixteen to twenty machines participated and one enemy machine was brought down. Another is believed accounted for. The raiders flew at great heights. Several fires were started by the bombs.

RIOTING IN ODESSA

BUSINESS IS SUSPENDED WHILE BOLSHEVIKI AND UKIANIAN TROOPS FIGHT WITH MACHINE GUNS

(Special Service to Glendale Evening News)

ODESSA, December 19.—Ukianian troops and Bolsheviki guards are fighting in the streets. The opera house is the headquarters of the Ukianian troops and is fortified with machine guns which have been turned on the Bolsheviki, who are replying with machine guns. The Bolsheviki have served an ultimatum to the Ukianians to cease aiding the Cossack rebellion or a state of war will be declared against them. All business has been suspended.

GERMAN SOCIALISTS OPPOSE PEACE

FEAR SEPARATE RUSSIAN PEACE WOULD STRENGTHEN IMPERIALISTS AND WIPE OUT SOCIALIST PARTY

(Special Service to Glendale Evening News)

STOCKHOLM, December 19.—Socialists of the Central powers are opposing a separate peace between Germany and Russia, fearing that such a step would strengthen German Imperialists and that the German Socialists would be forcibly wiped out. Word to this effect was brought here by Internationalist Bureau officials.

NO HOPE FOR F-1 CREW

NAVY DEPARTMENT ANNOUNCES THERE IS NO CHANCE FOR RECOVERING MEN LOST IN ACCIDENT

(Special Service to Glendale Evening News)

WASHINGTON, December 19.—There is no hope for recovering the nineteen men lost in the sinking of the American submarine F-1, it was stated at the navy department this morning. An investigation of the drowning is under way.

FIGHT TO RATIFY AMENDMENT

FRANKLIN HICHBORN PROMISES ACTIVE CAMPAIGN TO CONFIRM PROHIBITION MEASURE IN CALIFORNIA

(Special Service to Glendale Evening News)

SAN FRANCISCO, December 19.—Promise of an energetic campaign to secure the ratification by the next California legislature of the National Prohibition amendment was made by Franklin Hichborn, spokesman for the anti-saloon league today. In every assembly and senatorial district candidates endorsing the amendment will be given the active support of the dry organization. The next legislative session, January, 1919, to carry the amendment must have an increased "dry" strength of 33 in the Assembly and two in the Senate.

SEPARATE PEACE INEVITABLE

GERMANY REALIZES ITS IMPORTANCE AND WILL MAKE EVERY EFFORT BEFORE BOLSHEVIKI OVERTHROWN

(Special Service to Glendale Evening News)

WASHINGTON, December 19.—A separate peace between Germany and Russia is inevitable unless Russia frees herself from the Bolsheviki, Russian officials here predict. The effect of such a peace can not be overestimated, one official declared. Once signed the action is irreparable. Germany realizes this and will let no obstacle stand in her way. She will even make concessions which she has no intention of keeping. The belief is the Bolsheviki will be overthrown within a month but too late to prevent peace.

WILL IMPROVE CAMP CONDITIONS

ORDERS HAVE BEEN ISSUED TO MAKE ARMY CAMPS MORE SANITARY AND PROVIDE NECESSITIES FOR MEN

(Special Service to Glendale Evening News)

WASHINGTON, December 19.—Orders have been issued according to the urgent recommendations of Surgeon-General Gorgas for removing conditions which have led to disease and suffering in American army camps, the war department announced today. In accordance with Gorgas' recommendation, tents for every five men instead of every nine men have been ordered. Plumbing conditions will be improved where unsanitary and heavier clothing will be issued where before light clothing caused pneumonia. Conditions revealed are astounding, Senator Chamberlain declared.

THE RED CROSS DRIVE

GOOD WORK BY DISTRICT CHAIRMEN IN CAMPAIGN FOR NEW MEMBERS

Chairmen who are working in the Red Cross Drive are showing efficiency and turning in excellent reports in spite of the fact that this is the holiday season with its multiplied distractions. Some have territory which is much harder to cover than others. Some who were very active in the bazaar were not able to begin work on Monday, but it is certain the territory will be thoroughly canvassed and that Glendale will give a good account of herself as in other Red Cross work.

The record of memberships secured in the various districts on Monday and Tuesday, follows:

Chairman—District	Monday	Tuesday
Mrs. D. Campbell, Foothill	0	14
Mrs. Ella Richardson, 3	0	45
Mrs. L. N. Hagood, 1	10	7
Mrs. Stephen Packer, 4	2	6

MUNICIPAL FLAG POLE

This is just a line to remind Glendale citizens old and young not to forget the important and interesting ceremonies which will attend the rearing of the Municipal Flag Pole tomorrow (Thursday) at the corner of Brand and Broadway at 2:30 o'clock. Aside from its importance as a civic event, the program, which was published in full in the Evening News of Tuesday, will be well worth while.

For the comfort of those who are not able to stand during the ceremonies, side-walk seats will be provided by the Red Cross Chapter and rented by young lady members at 5c each, the proceeds to go to the Red Cross treasury. The leading address will be made by Rev. C. R. Norton, Chaplain of the N. P. Banks Post, G. A. R., who knows by personal experience what war and what true patriotism mean. He also knows the inspiration of the Stars and Stripes on land and sea.

GLENDALE SINGERS

Glendale is never out of the running no matter what is doing. It is good to know that Glendale singers are to be in the big chorus of the Los Angeles Oratorio Society which will give its annual presentation of the Messiah, that splendid production which we always want to hear again at Christmas time. This is the largest and finest chorus in Southern California and the Glendale singers who belong and who will help swell the choruses are first and foremost, Dr. H. R. Harrower, whose musical associates will be L. H. McDonald, of the Glendale Sanitarium, Clarence O. Smith, and Miss Ruth Hughes. It will be given at Temple Auditorium next Sunday afternoon at 3 o'clock, and the tickets have been put so low as to be within the reach of all.

THOUGHT IT WAS HEAVEN

Miss Mary Naylon, of Worcester, Mass., arrived in Glendale last Sunday night. She went to bed and dreamed of her home in the frozen east and when she awoke and saw the green grass and flowers and the orange trees hung with yellow fruit she at first thought she must have gone to Heaven. But she found out she was still here and now declares that the glowing descriptions she has many times read of Southern California are not at all overdrawn. She is visiting in the home of Fred Walker and family, who are old time friends. She plans to spend the winter in Glendale and may locate here permanently.

FLAG POLE DONATIONS

The following contributions to the municipal flag pole were left at the Glendale Evening News office. Names of additional contributors will be published later.

COMING CLUB EVENTS

PLANS ON LARGE SCALE BEING MADE FOR CONVENTION OF WOMEN'S CLUBS

Mrs. Mattison B. Jones, president of the District Federation of Women's Clubs reports that plans are being made on a large scale for the State Convention which is to be held at Santa Barbara in February. As there are 154 clubs in this district, its delegation will be a large one. Since all club women are engaged in war service work and the promotion of food conservation, the program will emphasize the note of patriotism but at the same time provide the customary educational and entertaining features. As yet no definite program has been outlined, but something of unusual interest which will take in the vital concerns of the day, is promised.

Of more immediate interest, perhaps, is the conference of club women to be held December 27th in the auditorium of the Broadway Department Store. From 10 to 12 there will be a parliamentary drill conducted by Mrs. R. W. Gleason. Charles F. Lummis will give an address on California History and Landmarks, and Mrs. Cable, president of the State Federation, will be present and give a timely talk.

One of the most important features of the program will be an illuminating address by Senator J. R. Brown, on "Remedial Legislation in Regard to Food Control." Dissatisfaction in many quarters with the work of Mr. Weinstock, State Market Director, has aroused a good deal of controversy and Senator Jones will discuss the matter from his standpoint. The workings of our State Commissions, of which there are thirty-two, will also be reviewed by Mrs. Paula Dunnigan, Chairman of Legislation. The cost of these commissions for salaries and office expenses, is quite a heavy expense, and the people, in the opinion of Mrs. Jones, particularly the women voters, are entitled to know just what work these bodies are doing. Dr. Jessie Russell will talk on "Relief Systems and Mothers' Pensions."

This conference, which as before stated, is open to all club women who care to attend, is a new feature introduced by Mrs. Jones, who feels that now is the opportune time to prepare women to understand the more important issues which will come before the State Legislature at its next session. Miss Blanche Vance, Chairman of Education and member of the Teachers' Club, will also be one of the speakers, and there will be some fine music.

HONORS SAILOR LAD

A dinner party at which covers were laid for six, was given last evening by Miss Ruth Palmer, of 116 West Colorado street, in honor of Rowland Walters, of the United States Navy, who astonished and delighted his friends by appearing quite unexpectedly Sunday night. When last they heard from him, his ship, the Cincinnati, was in Chinese waters. But it was ordered home and is now at San Diego. Rowland, whose home is with his grandmother, Mrs. N. H. Palmer, at 136 Elrose street, has been given until Wednesday to visit with his friends, who will improve the time to the utmost.

At the close of the dinner at which Miss Palmer was hostess, about 20 friends came in to spend the evening and hear about the experiences of the sailor boy. Christmas greens and holly featured the decorations for the pretty function.

IOWA DINNER

The annual Iowa Birthday Dinner, celebrating the admission of Iowa to the Union, will be held by the Iowa Association of Southern California Friday evening, December 28th, at Temple Auditorium Building, Los Angeles, at 7 o'clock. Entrance will be made from Fifth street. Following the dinner a fine program will be given. Dr. Merle L. Smith, of Pasadent, who has been touring the army cantonments, will make a patriotic address. Miss Louisiana Spaulding, daughter of the Tropico druggist, will sing the popular "Iowa Song," which is her own composition. There will be greetings and responses and talks by officials, and a general good time. Reservations for the dinner can be secured by calling the secretary, C. H. Parsons, 10459 or Main 5635.

MISSIONARY MEETING

The Women's Missionary Society of the Presbyterian Church of Tropico, will hold its monthly meeting Thursday, December 27th, at 2:30 p. m. at the home of Mrs. Frank Ashton, 120 W. Park avenue. Mrs. Merritt Ludden will have charge of the program.

THE INCOME TAX QUESTION

You won't have to figure out your own income tax all by yourself hereafter. The government is going to send out men to help you. It will be up to you to hunt up these men, who will be sent into every county seat town, and some other towns besides, to meet the people. Postmasters, bankers and newspapers will be able to tell you when the government's income tax man will be around, and where to find him. He will answer your questions, swear you to the return, take your money, and remove the wrinkles from your brow. Returns of income for 1917 must be made between January 1 and March 1, 1918.

"The Government recognizes," Collector of Internal Revenue Carter said today, "that many persons experience a good deal of difficulty in filling out income tax forms. It recognizes, too, that taxpayers resident at points where collectors' offices are not easily accessible find it hard to get proper instruction in the law. Next year, when every married person living with wife or husband and having a net income of $2,000, and every unmarried person having a net income of $1,000 for the year 1917 must make return of income on the form prescribed, there will be hundreds in every community seeking light on the law, and help in executing their returns. My own and every other collection district in the nation will be divided into districts, with the county as the unit, and a government officer, informed in the income tax assigned to each district. He will spend hardly less than a week in each county, and in some counties a longer time, very likely in the courthouse at the county seat town. In cities where there are collector's branch offices, he will be there, and in other cities possibly at the city hall. My office will in due time advise postmasters and bankers and send out notices to the newspapers stating when the officer will be in each county. It will be unnecessary for prospective taxpayers to ask my office for forms on which to make returns. The officer who visits their county will have them.

"It may be stated as a matter of general information that 'net income' is the remainder after subtracting expenses from gross income. Personal, family, or living expense is not expense in the meaning of the law, the exemption being allowed to cover such expenses.

"The new exemptions of $1,000 and $2,000 will add tens of thousands to the number of income taxpayers in this district, inasmuch as practically every farmer, merchant, tradesman, professional man and salary worker and a great many wage workers will be required to make return and pay tax.

"The law makes it the duty of the taxpayer to seek out the collector. Many people assume that if an income tax form is not sent, or a government officer does not call, they are relieved from making report. This is decidedly in error. It is the other way 'round. The taxpayer has to go to the government and if he doesn't within the time prescribed, he is a violator of the law, and the government will go to him with its penalties."

JOHN P. CARTER,
Collector.

Treasury Department, Office of Collector of Internal Revenue, Sixth District of California.

TONNAGE OR DEFEAT

Germany continues to count on the failure of our shipbuilding program. Well may she say that the men and the circumstances that delay it are "our best allies." In his latest speech Von Tirpitz expresses a sublime faith in American failure. He insists that our intervention, while unfortunate in a moral respect and in many other ways, has little military significance because "it is the tonnage question that is decisive."

Von Tirpitz is right. Tonnage is unquestionably to be the great and ultimately decisive factor in the world struggle. If we can get it sufficiently the victory will be gained. If we fail we may be forced to see a stalemate, perhaps even a defeat of our allies on the other side of the Atlantic, while we stand here in wrathful impotence, commanding enough power to turn the scales, but unable to bring it into action.

But Von Tirpitz is wrong in assuming that America will fail. He miscalculated as to the speedy results of submarine frightfulness. His calculations based on American incapacity must be proved equally groundless. But it boots nothing to deny that there is a meat in his estimate of the tremendous difficulties of transporting and maintaining a great army overseas. The transportation of the troops themselves is actually far less difficult than the problem of maintenance. The former task may be spread over a considerable time. But once a million men are in France the supply must be speedy, uninterrupted and constantly carried out on a gigantic scale.

The Herald has given some figures showing just what it means to keep a million men in France supplied. It will be the biggest job this country ever undertook. It will be impossible unless the shipping program is carried out with infinitely more speed than is at present manifested. This difficulty long ago found expression in the intimation of the British mission that it would be better to send fewer soldiers and reserve the tonnage for supplies for the soldiers of France and England already in the field. That view is now impossible. The allies must have men as soon as possible, as many as possible, and there must be ships to carry them.

Our men are now going abroad in a steady stream, we are told. It is said by next summer we may have a million men in Europe. We may—if we can build the ships and the submarines can be kept in bounds. Recent events have emphasized the vital necessity of concentration on this undertaking. Tonnage or Hunnage—we can take our choice.—Chicago Herald.

NOTICE OF CHANGE OF GRADE

Public notice is hereby given that on Tuesday the 11th day of December, 1917, the Board of Trustees of the City of Glendale, did at its meeting on said day adopt Resolution No. 974, declaring its intention to change and establish the grade on a portion of Broadway in said City. Reference is hereby made to Resolution No. 974, for further particulars for said change of grade.

PUTTING IT UP TO JOHN JONES

Last Sunday was a day of big things at the Christian Church, Louise and Colorado streets. It was boys' day in the Sunday School and they took full charge, giving a nice closing program. Pastor Cole's sermon, following was to the boys, from a five-fold text: "Watch ye, stand fast in the faith, quit ye like men, be strong; let all ye do be done in love." Each section of this text was a little sermon directly to boys, with every point driven home in convincing earnestness.

In the evening the men of the church had the service in charge, providing the songs, scripture reading and prayer. The sermon was by the pastor, his subject being "Putting it up to John Jones."

It was a call to men to a man's job in the state, the community and the church. The topic was based on an incident which happened to a man who, in the speaker's knowledge, had been a slacker in respects to the community and the common relations of life. This man had refused to be interested in civic things, an enemy to his city in that he neglected to use the power of franchise, and only a "bench warmer" in the church. His manner of life was no different from that of the men of the world around him. "And there was War on all the time," said Brother Cole, "war between the right and wrong, war for uplift against degredation, war for good government against bad. Instead of taking him out at daybreak and shooting him, he was let remain a slacker and pacifist, proclaiming the gospel of ease and indifference." The story of a calamity coming into his life and the knowledge that it all came through his slackness was told. A friend "put it up to him" that his one duty was to make good, gave the foundation for the exhortations in the sermon which followed.

"The greatest need of these times is men, manhood. This is no time for idlers and slackers and double-minded men. We are sending men to France today because John Joneses of the past have been slackers in religion. The countries who have been engaged in this war from the beginning have been surfeited with infidelity, and ecclesiastical bigotry and the state church have throttled the spirit of Jesus Christ. Christ could have prevented such a calamity if He had been alive. And mark you the biggest thing to come out of this struggle, is to be a new conception of His teachings.

We have allowed to rise up in this country a caste system distinct and well defined. Young men of all "classes" are donning the khaki of the new era, depositing the emblems of class distinction on a common ragheap, henceforth to fare alike. They are to learn a great lesson, one we have failed to instill and to live. Other great questions will face them, but out of it all will come a new Christ, the old Christ. We're not going to lose Christ, we're to find Him. Nor is the church to be destroyed. The gates of hell will not prevail against it. Yet it has failed to meet its opportunity in the past 100 years. A divided, wasteful, creed-bound, bickering, ecclesiastical hair-splitting organization stands aghast and impotent in the presence of a world's crisis. Her leaders, her men of means, her preachers know this and that portends a great day. We are seeing where Christ was right and we were wrong. The church will never be what she might be unless her men face the new issues like God's men; alive, willing, bleeding, praying, on fire, giving like He gave, brooking no slackers, not ashamed to own their God, who hear the call and enlist for service.

Nor are we going to lose the great fundamentals. A church never grows that lets down the bars. Illustrations of this are everywhere. A door that's wide and high enough to admit the unrepentant, etc., will be high and wide enough to let them leak out.

Facing these and other issues, what kind of men do we need in the church today?

1—Men of conviction. The Lord deliver us from the namby-pamby, wishy-washy, molly-coddle; the weak, pale, insipid, inane, backboneless, idle, on-the-fence, "oh, I guess so," excuse-making member! Some men's church activities remind me of a man riding on a merry-go-round, enough to make one wish he weren't a man.

What made the men of the sixties cry "We're coming father Abraham, 300,000 strong?" They had a Cause. Church men have a cause. The church is worth everything, or it's worth nothing. Let's take it off a peanut-stand basis and do work for God.

2—Men of wisdom. Where there is no vision men perish. We need to see things to do and do them; to see large enterprises for the Kingdom, to have initiative.

3—Men of business sense. Many men of great business acumen, during the week and in their work are like children in looking after the church's business. It's business and there are loads.

4.—Men willing to spend and be spent. Yes, spend money. Why not? Do business on the square with the Lord. Why not? Spend hospitality and fellowship. The saloon couldn't have lived a year if it had been all bad. It had sense enough to get the music and the fellowship that belonged to the church. Spend time with and for the boy. There are boys all around who have no direction and example of a father, at least of a goodly man. Be a big brother to some boy. Oh, men, if we measure up to our duty, how many mothers will be saved the long night watches, how many fathers will walk erect instead of bent, how many prison cells will yawn for inmates, how many saloon doors will stand open in vain waiting for customers, how many brothels close for lack of patrons, how many firesides be brightened with the laughter of happy children, how many dark spots be brightened with the gospel message! Lay out your life the naked life of a boy.

Oh, there's work to be done! The time is short! I "put it up to" you. Is this a time for passive Christianity? Is this a time to compromise? Is this time for playing at religion Is this a time to say, "I am too busy with something else?" Is this a time for excuses? No!

EFFECTIVE ADVERTISING

The Evening News has just been advised by a grateful patron that a beloved dog, a Boston terrier about two years old which was lost on Sunday, was found and restored to its delighted owners this morning. A search for the little animal, which had been the pet of its master and mistress since its puppyhood, was prosecuted all Sunday afternoon. Then publicity was sought and advertisements were placed in the four leading papers of Los Angeles. An advertisment was also inserted in the Glendale Evening News of Monday. Monday evening the finder of the dog saw the ad in our columns and tried without success to notify the advertiser. This morning she succeeded in reaching William Brunton, of 919 Mariposa street, master of the dog, who feels very much indebted to the News and who declares he will spend a much happier Christmas for having found his pet.

DANCE HALL AT CAMP LEWIS

A great many good people in Glendale as well as cities all over the land have been very much disturbed over the announcement in the papers that a big dance hall was to be provided at American Lake, where young ladies, several hundred of them, would be drafted as dancing partners for the soldier boys, who would pay her 15c per dance, 5c of which would be paid to the young lady, who was to be guaranteed a salary of $15.00 per week. The Y. W. C. A. was said to be sponsor for the plan. Protests began to roll in to Y. W. C. A. headquarters and the amazed ladies were surprised to find out what guilty wretches they were. So they directed their field secretary to deny most positively that they had ever dreamed of such a project. The secretary said "Is there any soldier boy would want his sister to be one of such a company of dance partners?" So here is another pro-German canard laid.

What the slacker would prefer is the passage of a vacational education law.

DEATH OF T. L. WILSON

Thomas Luther Wilson, of 114 Olive street, Burbank, who was the agent and telegraph operator there for seventeen or eighteen years for the Southern Pacific Railroad, died this morning (Wednesday) at 7:20 o'clock, of Bright's disease. His wife, Mary J. Wilson, survives to mourn his loss, also a daughter, Mrs. Lucy Lane. The remains, which are now at the parlors of Scovern, Letton & Frey will be shipped the early part of the week to San Lorenzo, the old home of Mr. Wilson and his parents, where services will be held.

A few years ago a "Society for the Prevention of Useless Giving" was formed and speedily gained many adherents. The members of this society were derisively termed "Spugs" by those who believed in indiscriminate Christmas giving, among themselves. But this year, in view of the widespread want in so many lands the idea has won many adherents.

WAR RELIEF FUND

The First Church of Christ, Scientist, in Boston, Mass., maintains a War Relief fund. Contributions are made to this fund from time to time by individuals or by branch churches. A collection was taken at First Church of Christ, Scientist, Glendale, a branch of the Mother Church in Boston, last Sunday morning amounting to $300.

The money from this fund is used for relief in all war stricken countries and is disbursed by committees who are giving their time to the work without salaries. The wisdom and economy with which this money is distributed assures fullest returns from funds contributed.

Personals

Christmas trees are now fashionable store front ornaments.

Mrs. F. W. Kilie and son, Eugene, of 815 S. Louise street, are spending the day in Los Angeles.

The daily salutation in Glendale: "Good morning, have you a street numbering system to offer?"

Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Franklin, of 200 South Central avenue, left Tuesday for the east on a business and pleasure trip. They will visit in Houston, Texas, and Ardmore, Oklahoma.

On account of the flag raising exercises occurring Thursday afternoon at 2:15 o'clock, the Evening News will be delivered two hours earlier than usual that the carrier boys may be permitted to attend the exercises.

An unusual effect of the very cold weather in the East is the freezing over of streams so that ice bridges are formed. It is noted that the Wabash river in many places is so firmly frozen that wagons and autos cross in safety.

The Vogue Tailoring Co. which specializes in both ladies and mens wear, has a greeting to our readers in the advertising columns. We bespeak for them a careful reading of the ad and the generous patronage of our readers.

Mr. and Mrs. Carlton E. West, of 828 San Rafael street, have just returned from a two weeks' visit in Chicago, Illinois. Miss Ethel West will entertain with a Christmas party next week in honor of boys at Camp Kearny.

Rev. Bede A. Johnson, former minister of the First Methodist church of Glendale, drove over Tuesday from Alhambra, his present location, accompanied by his family, especially to visit a few hours with his dear old friend, Samuel Parker.

In a recent letter from New York City, Gordon L. Smith, formerly in business at 771 S. Brand, states that his heart longs for dear old Glendale and he'll start very soon for his favored land. He expects to land in Glendale about the first of the year.

In spite of some reports to the contrary it was not "largely through the efforts of the children of the Intermediate School that the flag pole fund was raised," but as Dr. Harrower has stated that practically every pupil in Glendale had a part in it.

I. W. Stone, an accomplished musician, has lately become associated with the Glendale Music company. Mr. Stone is a teacher of the saxophone and any one interested in this instrument may get in touch with Mr. Stone through the music company.

Wm. Kelly arrived Tuesday from Billings, Montana, to join his wife and two sons, who have been living at 1450 West Seventh for several months. He has been working in the oil fields near there. When he left Billings there was 18 inches of snow on the ground and the mercury was at 12 degrees below zero.

The Evening News is in receipt of a very welcome postal card from Thomas V. Philp, of 225 Orange street, Glendale, postmarked San Antonio, Texas, and dated December 12th, announcing that he is in the Aviation Section of the Signal Corps; that he enlisted in Chicago and was sent to Jefferson Barracks, Missouri, and now is on his way to Camp Kelly, Texas. He states that his train carries fourteen coaches, and we assume they were all filled with soldiers.

CHURCH WEDDING

The first wedding in the pretty little Lutheran Church of Glendale, was solemnized on last Saturday at 4 o'clock by the pastor. The party was from Riverside, the former field of Rev. Mottern. Harold L. Lilley and Miss Dorothy M. Thompson were the happy pair. A few friends witnessed the ceremony, after which Mr. and Mrs. Harold Lilley left for San Diego and other beach towns to spend their honeymoon.

DEATH OF FRED'K SCHRAMM

Frederick Schramm died Monday night at 11:30 at the temporary home of himself and wife at 309 Belmont, the Al G. Barnes home. Mr. and Mrs. Schramm came to Glendale last May from Richmond, Cal., for his health, but his ailment, Bright's disease, was too far advanced. He had lived in California 17 years, but was born in Michigan, June 10, 1859. The son, George, arrived from Richmond at noon, to make arrangements for the funeral. The body is at the Pulliam Undertaking Parlors.

TRUSTEES' ADJOURNED MEETING

The trustees of the City of Glendale held an adjourned meeting in the City Hall Tuesday evening. The main object of holding the meeting was to confer with the members of the board of trustees of Tropico, relative to taking over the property which act will take place about the 12th of January next.

There were present at the meeting all members of the Glendale Board, viz. J. S. Thompson, president, and Trustees Chas. Grist, R. M. Jackson, F. L. Muhleman, Geo. B. Woodberry. Also T. W. Watson, city manager; W. E. Evans, city attorney; H. B. Lynch, manager of the public service department; Ed M. Lynch, city engineer; J. C. Sherer, city clerk.

The members of the Tropico board were Frank E. Peters, C. H. Henry, Fred A. Alspach, Walter C. Seal. Also Hartley Shaw, city attorney; A. J. Van Wie, city clerk; Dr. W. C. Mabry, health officer.

Upon request the clerk of the Tropico board read a list of the agreements promised to be carried out by the board of trustees, and filed the same with the officials of the Glendale board. Among the list were conditions concerning the paying of the Southern Pacific Railway Company for moving the tower; contemplated improvement on Columbus avenue; finishing of work on Hill and Green streets; Red Cross promised use of assembly room in City Hall; Ivanhoe bridge contracts; water, light and telephone contracts; play grounds, etc.

The joint conference was of a very agreeable nature and many valuable suggestions were made by trustees in attendance with a view of working out betterments for the combined cities.

COAL FAMINE IN EAST

The Tri-County Press, the paper formerly published at Polo, Ill., by the present publisher of the Glendale Evening News, says in regard to the coal situation:

"Polo and vicinity are suffering a near coal famine. It may not be a famine in the eyes of some of the numerous boards appointed to supervise the disposition of coal but it is pretty nearly one in fact.

"Last week, it was impossible to get more than a few bushels at a time while the outlook for this week, with intensely cold weather, is no better.

"While nearly all have been able to get barely enough to tide them along during the mild weather, the prospects are now that some houses will soon be without much heat.

"The following churches will have no Sunday night services on account of the shortage of coal and for patriotic reasons until further notice.

"Lutheran,
"Methodist,
"Evangelical,
"Christian,
"Presbyterian (Vesper.)

"The schools closed Tuesday evening for want of fuel."

In the same issue the temperature is given as ranging from 8 to 10 below zero.

EXEMPTION BOARD NEWS

American Lake Selects

Mr. Lanterman, Chairman of the Board of Exemptions which has its headquarters in the Chamber of Commerce, states that the bunch of selects from this district which were to have gone forward the 19th, will not be sent until the 27th. This will give them a chance to spend Christmas with their friends. The Board has not been able to get in touch with all of them and desires that persons who can give information concerning any of them should communicate with the Exemption Board in the Chamber of Commerce, Glendale. Some of the men enlisted and are now serving on the French front, though their names have not been taken from the registration roster. Following is the list:

Joseph Paul Chiarodit,
James Benjamin Thompson,
Frederick Eugene Burt,
Harold A. Slack,
Lyman Alonzo Cobb Waite,
Neil Cardwell Berry,
George Herbert White,
Ralp Crossman;
Luther Osgood Eldridge,
Lewis Andrew Pendleton,
Secundo Casares,
Morris Edwin E. Miller,
Reginald Dick, of Green River, Wyoming.

Registrants

Messrs. H. S. Mackay and W. R. Flint, attorneys who are in constant attendance at headquarters to assist registrants in the filling out of Questionnaires, state that where a registrant is claiming deferred classification by reason of wife, children or parents who are mainly dependent upon him for their support, it is desirable that such wife or parent accompany him to the Board headquarters to make supporting affidavit to the facts in the case.

Messrs. Mackay and Flint will be assisted from time to time by the following attorneys: E. M. Daniels, F. L. Muhleman, H. S. Clewett, Frederick Baker, Claire Van Etten, R. D. White, W. E. Evans, H. P. Goowin, Bert D. Woodward, Kyle Z. Grainger.

When Secretary Baker finishes his proposed military readjustment it is hoped that General Apathy will be reduced several grades.

What some women would like to hear of is a company that will insure against loss of alimony.

LETTER OF APPRECIATION

December 18, 1917.

The Glendale Evening News:

May I express a word of appreciation through your columns?

On behalf of the Glendale Branch of the National Defenders' Yuletide Committee, I want to thank the many citizens of Glendale for their fine response to the appeal made to them by the committee on behalf of our soldier and sailor boys. As published in your columns yesterday, the letter of Secretary Teasdale of the General Committee in Los Angeles, expresses his gratification at the amount given by this community. No undue pressure was made by the committee on the people of Glendale for this cause, but merely a sincere effort to lay before them a fine opportunity of making the boys feel exceptionally thankful at Christmas time.

The entire campaign was conducted at an expense of only $2.50, which expenditure was for printing.

The committee extends its sincere thanks to Mr. Akroyd for free use of headquarters at 1017 West Broadway; to Mr. Ezra F. Parker for free use of furnishings for the headquarters; to the Home Telephone Co. for free use of telephone; to the City for free use of light, heat and water, and to all others who contributed in any way to what would otherwise have been a necessary outlay of funds.

There is a difference of $20.00 between the amount stated in Mr. Teasdale's letter to our Secretary, Miss Eulalia Richardson, and in the net amount of $528.54 collected by the committee, the difference of $20.00 having been received by the treasurer since Mr. Teasdale's letter was written. As chairman of the committee, I am delighted to make this complete account of the funds raised.

Very truly yours,
GLENDALE BRANCH NATIONAL DEFENDERS' YULETIDE COMMITTEE,
MATTISON B. JONES,
Chairman.

LUTHERAN CHRISTMAS

The Lutheran congregation always makes much of Christmas Sunday and the Christmas festival itself. On this Sunday morning the pastor will present some interesting phase of the great festival. In the evening at 7:30 the Sunday School will celebrate with a very fine program. A Christmas tree will delight the young and old. The tiny tots will present a unique program, consisting of recitations, solos, and choruses. The young ladies' and men's classes will present a Christmas playlet entitled "White Gifts for the King." And the boys' class will also have an important part in the program. All will bring some gift, wrapped in white papers as a gift to King Jesus suitable for children. All gifts presented will be taken to the Juvenile wards of the County Hospital for the comfort and delight of the children there confined to help them have a Merry Christmas.

A special feature of early Christmas morning will be a service at 6:30, calculated to impress the spirit of Christmas upon the mind and heart by the beautiful Christmas story from the Bible and this interspersed by solos, duets and chorus. All invited to thus welcome the King in this early Christmas morning service.

PUPILS' RECITAL

A private recital was given this forenoon at the home of Mrs. Warren Q. Roberts, 707 W. Seventh street, at which some of her smaller pupils furnished the program. The guest list was limited to pupils and their mothers. The program included the following numbers:

GLENDALE W. C. T. U.

The Glendale W. C. T. U. will meet this week on Friday, December 21st, at 2:30 o'clock at the home of Mrs. J. N. and Mrs. Olive Marsh, 211 Cedar street. This meeting is of importance for one of the interesting features will be the report of the National Convention at our Capital City Washington, D. C. All cordially invited.

RUSH NAMES IN

We are very anxious to complete our list of soldier boys enlisted from Tropico, Glendale and Casa Verdugo and urge all our readers to scan the list carefully each time it is published and if your boy or your neighbor's boy is not named therein phone or send it to us at once, as we hope to have all in by Friday of this week and do not want to miss one. We are short very many names yet.

FROM CALIFORNIA

We come from o'er the Rockies,
And don't intend to stop,
Till we reach the front in Flanders,
And go across the top,
Have some fun
With a gun,
Chase a Hun,
See him run.

We've tried until we're weary,
Preparing then for this,
To get into the battle,
Have a portion of the bliss,
With a gun,
Have some fun,
Chase a Hun,
See him run.

We now are fine and dandy,
And eager for the day,
When with the boys now fighting,
We mingle in the fray.
Chase a Hun,
With a gun,
Have some fun,
See him run

With viva Californians,
And hearts for any fate,
We'll enter in the fracas,
Before it is too late.
With a gun,

LOCAL RED CROSS

It has pleased me in this to locate the birth of your "far flung order of today"—with the familiar incident occurring on the "Jericho Road" and be this fact or fiction matters not. Reaching out to capture the world there can be no valid reason why your membership should not be identical with the population—especially in our own fair land.

May it speedily become so, and the spirit of the Samaritan, so grandly manifested in your work, continue to grow and spread until human suffering shall be minimized to the utmost.

Wishing the largest success for an organization of such unmeasurable value to the world, I remain a friend,
SAMUEL PARKER.

The Old Jericho Road

In Orient movement to and fro—
Came life along Old Jericho,
As passing years have unrolled
What stores of thee have been told.
And yet we come anew today
For stories reaching all the way
From General Joshua,
To General Allanby.

For grandest story man may know
We come to thee Old Jericho—
We come to find the generous man
The helpful good Samaritan—
These too, the Master pledged to bless
Those helping others in distress
This broad commission gives to you
"Go thou and ever likewise do—
In helping thus the needy, see
You truly are but helping me."

But who comes here—his name unknown
He lives in fame for what he's done
He saw a fellow in distress,
He sought the suffering to repress—
He walked, he helped the wounded ride—
He at the tavern made provide,
For every comfort need "until
Again I come I'll foot the bill."
Oh Jericho thus linked with fame,
And yet no one knows his name.

Say who are you? And where do you live,
If you do not catch the thrill
And are not ready to give
Shouts full throat-size with a will
As gallant General Allenby
Wheeled his brave troopers into line,
With England's banners waving high
"We come, we conquer by this sign"
Moved up that old familiar way
Road so well known in ancient time
Road where we meet today—
O'er-shadowed by themes sublime,
Oh ancient road of Jericho.

Right grandly on the column goes
Guided by English fife and drum—
And e'er the day shall close
They will reach Jerusalem—
Enter and make a final end
To Turkish rule of Sacred things,
With one voice let the ransomed send
"Hozanna to the King of Kings."

Just as a Mighty Oak

Can grow from a small acorn,—so can a fortune grow from a small bank account.

Both when well started have a steady growth. You can start your account this month. Even though it be a small one at first, if you will steadily add to it in a few years you will have a capital worth working for.

If you live in Glendale, make up your mind to start an account in this Glendale Bank and watch your money grow with the bank and the town.

JELLIES FOR SICK CHILDREN

Mrs. E. W. Kinney, of 1223 West Seventh street, and her neighbor, Mrs. J. Nesom, have been conducting a drive for the Children's Hospital at 4614 Sunset boulevard, Los Angeles, in response to an appeal for jellies and for scissors which the children can use in cutting pictures out of magazines. There are about seventy little cripples in the institution at the present time.

Mrs. Kinney reports that the response was instant and generous and she was able to send to the hospital one hundred glasses of jelly donated by Glendale ladies.

IMPORTANT NOTICE TO REGISTRANTS

Under jurisdiction of Local Exemption Board District No. 7, whose order numbers are between No. 318 and No. 417, inclusive:

There has this day been mailed to you a questionnaire which you are required by law to execute and return within seven days from date hereof.

Failure to do so constitutes a misdemeanor punishable by not to exceed one year's imprisonment; and such failure may also deprive you of valuable rights and result in your immediate induction into military service and trial by court-martial.

RED CROSS SERVICE FLAGS

In thousands of American homes, in the days preceding the coming Yuletide Red Cross service flags will occupy window space along with the wreaths of holly. These flags will be a feature of the Red Cross Christmas Membership Campaign, which will run from December 17 to Christmas Eve. A flag in a window will mean that a person in that home is a member of the Red Cross. Additional emblems on the flag will indicate the number of members of the household who have joined the Red Cross. If not already a Red Cross member a person living in a house that is as yet without the flag may join in the Christmas drive and obtain one for display.

The window service flags, which are transparent, will play a part in a nation-wide Christmas Eve demonstration that is to be the climax of the membership campaign. Candles are to burn behind the flags in every window on the night before Christmas, and at intervals church bells will chime in every community, while groups of Red Cross workers will parade the streets singing carols.

LAND THROWN FROM FOREST

On December 5, 1917, a proclamation was signed by the President eliminating approximately 431,000 acres from the Sequoia National Forest, California, according to a recent report given out by the Forest Service. The greater portion of the lands eliminated comprise three large tracts situated at the southern end of the forest. One area, which averages about 20 miles long in a north and south direction, by about 12 miles wide from east to west, and situated just east of the Kern River, is designated as the Kennedy Meadows area and comprises slightly over 165,000 acres, of which 12,000 acres were found to possess agricultural value. At the present time this land is utilized chiefly for grazing. Another large area, designated as the Walker Basin and Caliente area, comprises 145,000 acres, of which only about 3,000 acres are of material value for agricultural purposes. Grazing is the principal industry on this area.

Of the entire area eliminated from the Forest about 20,000 acres are shown by the classification reports to have agricultural value, and it is believed that considerable of this land will be filed upon in the near future.

An interesting relic was sold in Glasgow the other day. It was the old yellow silk pennant of the Earls of Marchmont, on which are the St. Andrew's cross, the lion rampant, and other heraldic devices. The pennant is in a fragile condition and is thought to date back to the fourteenth century. It is satisfactory to know that this interesting relic of an earlier day was purchased by a Scotsman, and therefore will remain in Scotland.

THE CAPTAIN AND HIS MEN

A regular army captain of long experience in Uncle Sam's service, has written for the Chicago Tribune the following, which is addressed to parents and close friends of the boys who have gone to war. The subject is "A Captain and His Company." He says:

As a captain I believe that I have the most responsible position in the army. The company is the smallest unit over which a commander exercises executive and disciplinary authority. If the companies are right the regiment is right; when the regiments are right the brigades and divisions are bound to be right.

As a captain I am in closer touch with the men than any other officer possibly can be. My lieutenants can only carry out my policies. They have no right to reward or punish—in fact, they are a greater distance from the men than I am. I am responsible for the food they eat, for the clothes they wear, for the shelter they have, for their physical condition, their mental and moral viewpoint. For, in short, that one thing that spells so much their morale. I cannot delegate this authority to any one else. As a captain is, so is his company, is an axiom.

So I want to say through the Tribune a word to the parents, wives, sweethearts, and friends of my men, speaking in a general way for all real captains, who realize that they are more than mere uniformed order givers. First of all, don't waste any sympathy on them over their hard lot. A real man resents it, and none of them need it. They are well fed, well clothed, and as happy as they choose to make themselves. They do not want to be babied, but do like to be petted and made much of.

If you have troubles at home, keep them to yourselves, and don't let your soldier boys know about them. If you lose money or the business goes wrong, don't tell him. He cannot help you get it right. Is somebody sick, minimize it. They will probably get well by the time you get an answer back. In the meantime, you have thrown one of my men out of his stride, and he tells me of his troubles and you add to my burden.

Encourage him in the glorious task he has undertaken. Call him all the hero you want to. Tell him when he goes over the top that he is to think of you as waiting for him to come home; but you want him to go over, and while he is to take the best possible care of himself he is never to flinch.

I will see to it that he is bathed and clean, that he is hard and fit. I will never ask him to go and do it, but say, Come on and I will show you how. I will try to keep whisky and immorality away from him. I will know where he is every hour of the day or night. In other words, I will take better care of him than you did when he was at home. We have no poolroom hells in the army. No street corner gangs. When the war is over he will come back to you a real man, and, O, how proud you will be of him!

Above everything else, write to him. Write every day, if it is only a line. Never mind whether he answers or not. We cannot always write. We have to go the limits of human endurance sometimes, the tired body needs rest and food and sleep worse than you need a letter, the majority of us are coming back, but if we do not, as one of my men put it, "who cares," not in a spirit of bravado or defiance, but on the theory that "every bullet has its billet," and until I get mine I am going to do my best to do my bit and carry on to the end.

Send cirgars, pipes, tobacco, cigarets, sweets of all kinds. Every package you send is divided up with his squad. You not only help him, but possibly some one who has no folks, nobody to send him anything. One of the most pitiful sights I have to face is to see the man without family or home when the mail is distributed. He never looks up at the yell, "The mail orderly is here." I want you to help him. Ask your boy if there is such an one in his squad. Send him a line or two.

In all this advice I am a bit selfish, for a happy, contented man is cheerful, easy to handle, ready to obey and a pleasure to teach. He is a dependable cog in the most important machine Uncle Sam has, and the only one he cannot replace, for every good man in the army has his work to do, and when one of them is absent at roll call none can answer for him.

An Army Captain.

AUDITING ASSOCIATIONS

Auditing associations, having for their purpose the efficient periodic auditing and reduction of the expense of this service among farmers' business associations, have been organized in North Dakota and Kansas. The Bureau of Markets, of the United States Department of Agriculture, has assisted these associations with a suggested form of by-laws and in other ways in aiding in the work of organizing. The membership of the auditing association in Kansas is composed of some 225 farmers' business organizations. It is believed that these associations, if properly conducted, may serve not only as a committee of audit but also as a centralized business reference bureau wherein the managers of the various enterprises comprising the membership may receive valuable advice and assistance and secure comparative statistics in similar lines of operation.

TROPICO TRUSTEES

ARRANGE FOR AUDIT OF ACCOUNTS AND TRANSACT OTHER BUSINESS

The meeting of City Trustees of Tropico Tuesday evening was a very short session. But four trustees were present, viz. Peters, Henry, Alspach and Seal.

Following the reading and approval of the minutes of the previous meeting, a communication from the Sealer of Weights and Measures was read by the Clerk which contained his recommendations in regard to the weight of loaves of bread. Ordered placed on file.

Extension of Option

Under the call for reports of officers City Attorney Shaw stated that in obedience to the instructions of the Board he had written the Railroad Commission in regard to an extension of the contract between the city and the Pacific Light and Power Company, the former owner of the system through which Tropico is furnished with electric light, and in response had received a letter which the clerk would read. The letter stated that it was unnecessary for the city to ask for the authority of the Railroad Commission in extending the contract, under Section 51 of the Public Utilities Act; that the application should be made to the Southern California Edison Company, the successor to the Pacific Light & Power Company. The City Attorney recommended that the matter be referred to the City of Glendale, and by vote of all members present the suggestion was adopted and the matter thus referred.

Telephone Merger

City Attorney Shaw also reported that he had addressed to the Railroad Commission a protest against the consolidation of the two telephone companies which are operating in Glendale in case an increase of rates was contemplated under such a merger, but had received no response as yet.

Audit of Accounts

Under the head of new business the question of an audit of the books of the city was called up by Trustee Alspach, and Trustee Henry, who had been delegated to secure bids from public accountants, was called upon for a report. Thereupon he introduced to the Board, Messrs. Reed and Small, two professional auditors whom he pronounced competent, in his judgment. The Board members then explained to the gentlemen the extent and character of the audit desired and arranged with them to inspect the books and submit bids for the work on a per diem basis at the next meeting.

Glendale Resolution

The resolution of Glendale trustees presented at the last meeting and adopted by the Tropico Board, was then reviewed in connection with a list of Tropico ordinances prepared by City Clerk Van Wie, and other data relative to municipal affairs which are in a transition state. After slight discussion the Board decided to let all ordinances that would automatically be repealed by consolidation, take their course, and if the reenactment of any of the legislation should seem desirable, to take the matter up with Glendale officials at a later date.

Disinfection

Health Officer Mabry asked for and was granted permission to employ a professional to disinfect a house on Tenth street where there had been a case of infectious disease.

Demands

Demands which had been approved and ordered paid, were read by Clerk Van Wie as follows: Tropico Feed & Fuel Co., for Street Department $4.90; Puente Oil company, $1.60 (Fire Department); C. Hunter (plumbing bill) $1; Gas company (heating) $3.45; Baker (street labor) $2.50.

The Board then adjourned to meet next Monday instead of Tuesday on account of the holiday.

After adjournment the Board members drove to Glendale for an informal conference with the trustees of that city relative to Tropico affairs which will be turned over to them.

A PRAYER

When the stranger asks a home,
All his toils to end;
When the hungry craveth food,
And the poor a friend;
When the sailor on the wave
Bows the fervent knee;
When the soldier on the field
Lifts his heart to Thee:
Hear then in love, O Lord, the cry
In heaven, thy dwelling place on high.

PROFIT IN POULTRY

Even with feed at its present high price, poultry experts figure that there is a reasonable profit in chicken raising if care is taken with the flock to see that no grain or other feed is wasted, that plenty of pure water is furnished and the birds kept free from disease. Each hen should pay a profit of 75c a year with eggs alone, and an additional sum could be cleared from the sale of fryers and broilers. But raisers of poultry on the scale of 500 to 2000 hens find a greater source of profit in the sale of day-old chicks, many of them keeping the incubators going every day in the year.

"It's not the money, it's the principle of the thing he's fighting for."

"They all say that."

"I know, but in this case it must be. He has hired a $10,000 lawyer to defend him in a $500 law suit."
